

National HBCU Alumni Associations Foundation, Inc. - www.nhbcuaaf.org

Exciting news for HBCU supporters! The newest information will be discussed during the National Historically Black Colleges & Universities Alumni Associations Foundation 10th Annual HBCU Alumni Virtual Conference on Saturday August 10, 2024, from 9:00am - 3:00pm (ET).

You will see why presidents of HBCUs, Board of Trustees and foundation members, national and chapter alumni leaders, students, parents, and friends have participated in our conferences since 2014. It is your turn to register if you are interested in receiving strategies to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of your alumni organization. Additionally, the conference will cover strategies to increase the capacity of alumni leaders and members to operate successful alumni organizations.

During the past ten years the following HBCUs enthusiastically hosted and supported this dynamic annual conference:

- Bowie State University
- Kentucky State University
- North Carolina Central University
- Florida Memorial University
- Fort Valley State University

Will you or your alumni association be next to participate to enhance their legacy of supporting your alma mater, mentoring young alums to increase their participation in their alumni association and enriching the experiences of current students?

Registration is open. Click HERE to visit us for more information and we look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Ty Couey - NHBCUAAF President - tycouey@nhbcuaaf.org
